

PortAventura World is named Europe's Best Amusement Park and wins Best Show award for We Dance On Movies

- The park has now won this award, which is presented annually by the respected leisure website worldofparks.eu, for eight consecutive years.
- We Dance On Movies, one of the new additions for 2019, has also won the award for Best Show in a European Amusement Park.

PortAventura, 5 August 2019. - PortAventura World has been named Best Amusement Park in Europe in the World of Parks Awards. For the eighth consecutive year, the 30,000 readers of worldofparks.eu have voted to give the resort this recognition.

We Dance On Movies* has also been voted the winner of Best Show in a European Amusement Park. We Dance on Movies invites the audience to take an incredible journey through the world of cinema, with exquisite staging, the most cinematographic musical compositions and an outstanding acrobatic performance.

The World of Parks Awards are presented by worldofparks.eu, one of the leading international portals providing information on theme and amusement parks. These awards recognise the work of the best parks and attractions of the entire European continent.

We Dance On Movies is one of the new shows that PortAventura World has introduced for the 2019 season. Each year, the resort grows and develops even further with new additions to its already wide range of family leisure options. In 2019, as well as We Dance on Movies, visitors to PortAventura World can enjoy the new attraction Street Mission, Europe's only dark ride inspired by Sesame Street[®].

The highlight in terms of accommodation will be the opening of Hotel Colorado Creek, the new premium four-star themed hotel located in the Far West, also the resort's first carbon-neutral hotel.
